Society of Books

Society of Books was started by Miss Rogers when she became the school librarian. The Society is limited to the sixteen girls who work in the library. They learn the many duties of a librarian and try always to be polite, courteous, and helpful.

The library contains 3668 books and subscribes to 41 magazines. Also available are encyclopedias, maps, and reference materials. The library was given in memory of Anna M. Welch and dedicated to the Delphos High School boys and girls. It was later enlarged in 1935.

"Fellow Future Farmers, why are we here?"

To this sixty-seven F. F. A. boys respond: "To practice brotherhood, honor rural opportunities and responsibilities, and develop those qualities of leadership which a Future Farmer should possess."

This is why the future farmer organization exists. By working and co-operating with others, the F. F. A. boys practice brotherhood. They have responsibilities on the farm, care for their livestock each day, and work with their crops in the spring and summer. They become leaders in their community, their country, and our world. A Future Farmer should possess these characteristics.

Our chapter participated in many events during the year, including parliamentary procedure contest, public speaking contests, and judging contests.

Y - TEENS ... faith ... fellowship ... fun

The first meeting of the year was the candle-light service for the induction of new members. It was a very impressive service with each new member taking the Y-Teen oath by promising to uphold the ideals of the organization.

December 7 proved to be one of the most exciting evenings of the school year. Shangri-La was the theme of the annual formal dance. The decorations were in beautiful oriental colors and styles. Carl Beech provided the music for dancing and intermission entertainment was presented by Y-Teen groups.

Mrs. Bucholtz was guest speaker at a tea in the Spring. She told of her exciting experiences in New York on T. V.

After many such enjoyable meetings and parties, the Y-Teens closed the year with the annual combined Y-Teen and G. A. A. picnic.

CHOIR

...allegro ... andante ... adagio

Under the new director, Paul Sheffer, the chorus put forth another fine season. Late in the fall the musicians traveled to Findlay, where they presented a concert to an audience of college students. On December 1, the chorus, with the girls glee and ensembles and solos presented the annual Christmas Program. A musical highlight was the District Music Festival on February 1, when Jefferson was host to a 280 voice district chorus, including sixteen of our own vocalists.

Ensembles and soloists climaxed months of hard practice by a fine showing at District and State Contests. On March 22, the chorus and glee club went to District Contest at Bluffton, where they turned in an excellent performance.

After a fine spring concert, the choir rounded out a busy year by singing at Baccalaureate.

The 1957-58 basketball team was low man on the totem-pole this year with a record of one win and fifteen losses. Although the wildcats were low in the Northwestern Conference standings, they were champions in team spirit and sportsmanship. The games were hard fought and close and the squad would never give up trying to win. Although we won one game, teams have learned to respect the Wildcats due to the fact that we had the willpower to put up a good fight.

CLUB . . . active . . . athletic

The Varsity D-Club has been an active organization in Delphos High School accomplishing varied and interesting projects throughout the year. Those who had earned a letter in any of the three major sports and were able to survive the initiation were duly welcomed as new members.

Activities other than sports included the selling of programs at football and basketball games and pop at basketball games. The club bought flowers for "Mom's night," and treated the football team to a trip to the Ohio State-Purdue game. They completed the year with a "blowout" for the basketball team at the close of their season.

G.A.A. . . . basketball . . . bowling . . . banquet

Once each year the halls of Jefferson High School can be seen filled with many girls sporting black eyes. The occasion of course is G.A.A. initiation. Really the black eyes are just an excess of shoe polish or burnt cork and the girls are freshmen seeking membership in the Girls Athletic Association. Once initiation is over the club steps into full swing for a busy year.

Intramurals, hitpin, volleyball, and basketball are the sports the girls excel in. They show their skill during the noon hour, sometimes scoring as many as 15 points in a basketball game.

The high light of the year is the G.A.A. athletic banquet, followed by a dance. The boys participating in the varsity athletic program are the honored guests of the G.A.A.

National Honor Society

The Delphos Chapter of the National Honor Society was formed in 1943. The high ideals of the club serve as a goal attainable only through outstanding merit in scholarship, character, leadership, and service. On March 6, one senior and eight juniors were inducted in a formal ceremony. The Van Wert Chapter was invited to assist in the program and a tea was served afterwards for parents and friends of members.

Science and Commercial Classes Take Field Trip...

BAND . . . practice . . . precision . . . performance

Stepping high through mud and mire, the Delphos Jefferson Marching Band completed another successful season of parades and pre-game and half-time shows. The band then formed its concert counter-part and plunged into the music for the Christmas Concert, which was given on December 15. On February 1, twelve of our band members were privileged to play in the orchestra and band of the District Music Festival.

The dance band provided music for many school dances, and the intermediate band played for the class plays.

Jefferson was well represented at the district ensemble contest. They all did very well and brought credit to Jefferson. The band made an outstanding performance at the District Contest, then completed the season with the Spring Concert.

Juniors – We've spent an industrious year; Fun-loving, friendly, with efforts sincere.

This was really a busy year! First came the call for the school newspaper, our Re-Echo. Just getting into the swing of things, we dropped everything and produced a class play entitled, "A Date With Judy". It was an exciting day when our class rings arrived. We wore them with pride. Spring was in the air and the glamour of our prom added to the excitement of the season. With report cards in hand we look forward to summer and then September when we will take our place as Seniors.
